

29 SEP 100 WOMEN - 100 MINIATURES

At the Canadian Ambassador's residence in Belgrade, at the 8th consecutive exhibition staged by the Ethno Network in cooperation with NALED, the Coordination Body for Gender Equality and the City of Belgrade, awards were given to the most successful authors who created miniatures on the topic of tradition and innovation. 53 authors from 20 cities and municipalities of Serbia and the region applied for the participation in the exhibition. A total of 113 exhibits were staged, which were made using non-classical materials and modern motifs with various colour combinations or by using a mixture of several techniques. The awards were presented by the Canadian Ambassador to Serbia, H.E. Giles Norman, Belgrade Mayor Zoran Radojičić and Equality Commissioner Brankica Janković.

From left to right: Ambassador of Cyprus, Indonesia and Albania, Robert Coban, CPG, Mayor of Belgrade and Ambassador of Egypt

Ambassador of Canada, Brankica Janković, Commissioner for Protection of Equality and Zoran Radojičić, Mayor of Belgrade